SUB-CONSIGNMENT NUMBERS

The District Offices, on sending supplies to minor offices under their control, overprinted numbers on the stamps corresponding to the numbers of the invoices and, in certain districts, occasionally overprinted the year as well. In many offices this system was not adopted until late in 1864 or early in 1865, and in a few districts sub-consignment numbers were not overprinted. In these cases, however, many of the sub-consignments can be identified by the cancellation, especially when this bears the date, and numerous examples are to be found in the following portion of this collection.

Special attention is called to the extreme rarity of many of these sub-consignments. Figures are only fully available for the districts Morelia and Puebla and partially for a few others (see Chapman's "Stamps of Mexico, 1856-1868"), but reference to Morelia and Puebla, which are both common districts, will conclusively prove their great rarity—many consignments consisting of a total sending of 5 or 10 stamps of a particular denomination.

Mr. Chapman, with his early exclusive knowledge of the statistics, has been able to concentrate on the rarer consignments and has thus got together by far the finest collection in existence.
